

RIVERLINKS

SEASON
2019

WELCOME

As always, we aim to provide variety and excitement in our Season of performances. There is circus, cabaret, ballet, drama, concerts and musicals; featuring some of the best touring productions and companies from around the country.

We are delighted to welcome "Hallowed Ground", a moving portrayal of female nurses and doctors in war, from the Gallipoli campaign to the dusty plains of Afghanistan as well as "Spencer", a brand new Australian play described as "family comic drama at its finest".

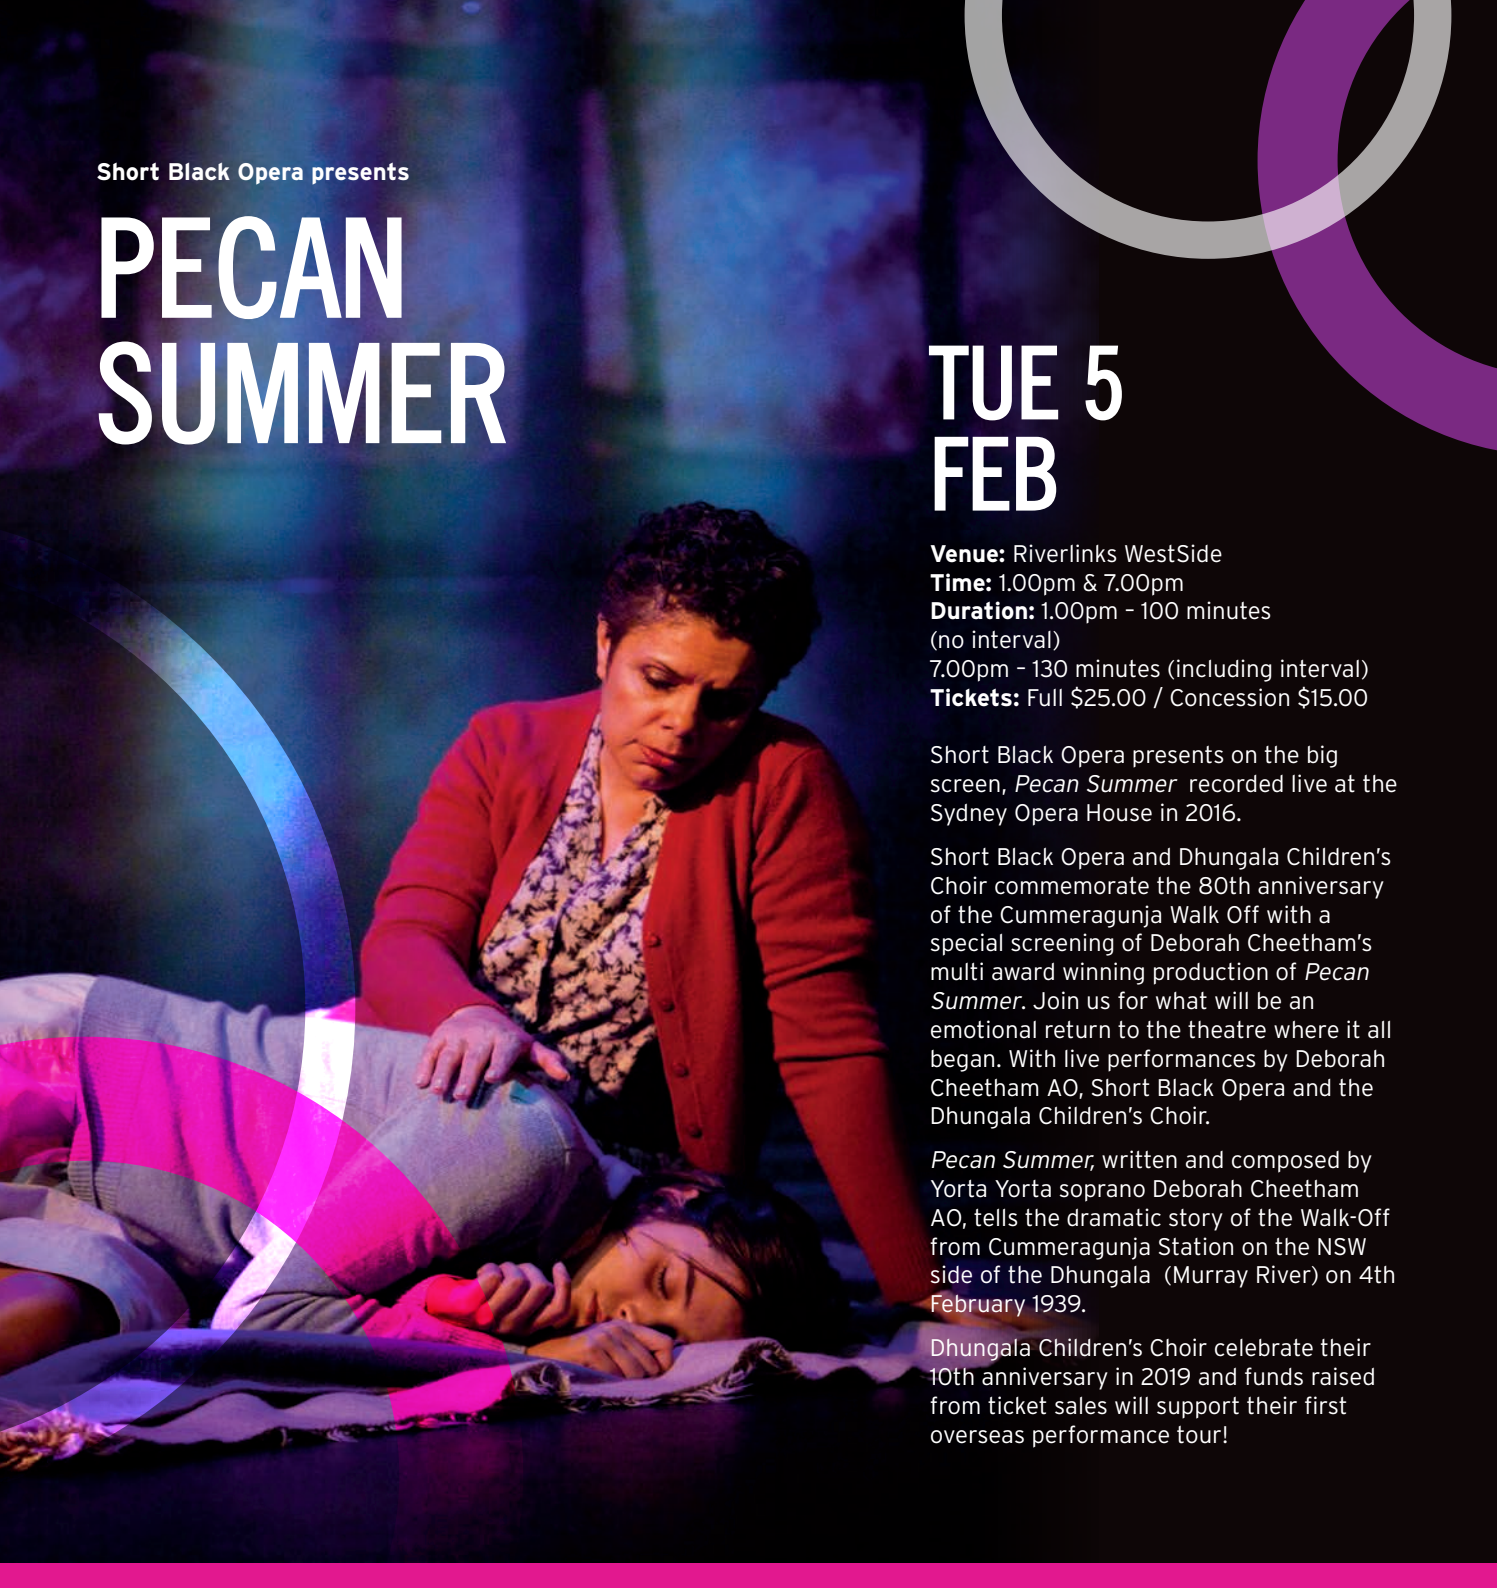

We continue our Cabaret series this year where we transform Eastbank into a stylish and colourful setting for shows such as Lady Beatle, featuring songs of the Beatles with a bit of a twist, performed by stage and screen star Naomi Price.

These are just a few of the shows in our Season so please take a moment to look through this brochure and see what else is in store for you. We look forward to welcoming you to one of our performances very soon!

Pre-show talk from 7.00pm

To hear Bach's keyboard concertos is to witness the birth of a genre. Alternating bustling brio and the most heartfelt lyricism, Bach creates music that speaks across the centuries. Recently praised for his 'simply gorgeous' playing and 'crystalline phrasing' by the Washington Post, pianist David Fung is an ideal match for the immaculate poise and effortless dexterity these wonderful concertos require.

Program:

Dvorak - Three Miniatures Op 75a

Telemann - Concerto for four violins TWV54:A1

Bach - Keyboard Concerto No 7 in G minor BWV1058

Bach - Keyboard Concerto No 4 in A Major BWV1055

Bartok - Divertimento Sz113.

This multiple award-winning musical play, that inspired the film of the same name, is returning to Shepparton.

Four young Yorta Yorta women, who like singing country music, suddenly get the chance to change their tune and their lives. Wearing sequins and armed only with microphones they find themselves trying to spread joy in the hell that is the Vietnam War.

The Sapphires, written by Tony Briggs, is a funny, heart-warming tale inspired by the true story of his mother.

Based on The Corsair by Lord Byron and choreographed by Michelle Sierra, this exhilarating production is something that cannot be missed.

Le Corsaire is one of the world's most loved classical ballets. Featuring a top cast of leading classical ballet artists, the performance is full of action, adventure, comedy and romance. The performance features captive maidens, rich pashas, dramatic rescues, culminating in an unexpected shipwreck.

This is classical ballet at its finest. An inspiring, adventurous, entertaining and memorable experience for the whole family.

Follow the personal journeys of four women, united in their determination to utilise their skills in the field of medicine on active service within the military.

From the pioneers of World War One, first denied military service, throughout the battles of World War Two - through contemporary conflicts and as peacekeepers in times of humanitarian crisis; these and other stories come to life in vivid accounts of revelation, loss, struggle and kinship.

Together they share moments of hope and humour that punctuates the otherwise harrowing task of caring for soldiers in a war zone.

Ballet's most charming comedy, live on stage: The Australian Ballet's Regional Tour presents Coppélia.

Swanilda and Franz are in love ... until a beautiful stranger, the daughter of the magician Dr Coppelius, appears in town. But she is not what she seems, and Swanilda must rescue Franz from the magician's sinister workshop - with the help of some fancy footwork!

This sparkling tale of magic and mischief, with its irresistible melodies and 'living dolls', is amusing fun for the whole family. Inspired by E.T.A. Hoffmann's stories, Coppélia features exquisite costumes by master designer Kristian Fredrikson.

Laughter and love, lively dancing and vivid colour - treat the family to Coppélia.

Kenny Broberg, finalist at the most recent Sydney International Piano Competition, returns to Australia as part of a major recital tour. This is a wonderful opportunity to catch this outstanding musician as his reputation continues to grow. In 2017, Kenny won the Silver medal at the prestigious Van Cliburn International Piano Competition, USA and has already performed as Guest Soloist with the Royal Philharmonic, Sydney Symphony, Minnesota and Seattle Orchestras amongst others. He recently released his debut album, Cliburn Silver, on the Decca Gold label.

Do you still feel like you're 25 even though your birthdate stubbornly insists you're not? This hilarious cabaret show from Amity Dry has been a five star success in the Adelaide Fringe and Melbourne International Comedy Festival. So if you remember when fringe perms and ra-ra skirts were cool and occasionally get a shock when you catch your own reflection, come and laugh (and cry) with Amity as she explores the pressure to stay forever young and asks whether 40 really is the new 30 - or only with the right Instagram filter!

'A sparkling, enthralling, fun, laugh out loud night... you will leave the show feeling uplifted and empowered.' Theatre People

There's no such thing as fun for the whole family...

A brand new comedy-drama looking at a gloriously dysfunctional Australian home, Spencer tells the story of a tight-knit family led by single-mum matriarch Marilyn and her three adult children - wayward daughter Jules, mouthy coulda-been Ben and AFL golden boy Scott.

About to meet the younger son - Spencer - he never knew he had, Scott and the family have returned home to help mark the occasion. With the surprise appearance of Ian, the father they barely remember, the entire family is forced to work together to clean up both the house and their own fractured relationships as the clock ticks down to Spencer's arrival.

Starring Jane Clifton (Prisoner) and Roger Oakley (Home & Away) Spencer asks us to consider how much our family defines who we are, and if we ever really grow up...

Rossini Overture to L'Italiana in Algieri

Mendelssohn Violin Concerto

Vivaldi Concerto for Two Violins

Schubert Symphony No.3

The Melbourne Symphony Orchestra presents a breathtaking evening of classical masterworks, including Schubert's dramatic Third Symphony, a high-spirited and charming romp imbued with the composer's youthful vigour. Mendelssohn's Violin Concerto was the first piece that soloist Anne-Marie Johnson begged her teacher to learn, and it's easy to see why, with its vivacious rhythms and hummable melodies. She'll be joined by MSO Concertmaster Dale Barltrop for Vivaldi's Concerto for two violins to complete an evening both elegant and exhilarating.

Enhance your concert experience by attending a free pre-concert talk at 6.30pm. Join us for an informative conversation about the evening's program, where you'll learn about the composers and gain insights into the music.

This hilarious and inspirational comedy will leave you laughing so hard, you'll burn more calories than you have all week! Set in Cook's Women's Gym, WaistWatches The Musical takes a hilarious and light-hearted look at four women dishing on food, diets, exercise, friendship and love.

WaistWatches The Musical is fast-paced, with lots of energy and a ton of heart. It pokes fun at a number of familiar obsessions yet is very uplifting and empowering. As we watch the ladies share their lives with us, they blossom into stronger women who take ownership of their eating, their bodies, their relationships and their self-esteem.

From the creators of Rumour Has It and Wrecking Ball comes the must-see live music event of the year.

Lady Beatle is a rollicking magical mystery tour soundtracked by The Beatles' chart toppers, including 'Lucy in the Sky With Diamonds', 'Eleanor Rigby', 'Yellow Submarine' and 'Penny Lane'.

Starring Naomi Price, alongside Mik Easterman, Andrew Johnson, Michael Manikus and Jason McGregor.

Flanked by a live band, Price transports audiences to 1960s Liverpool, taking the audience along for the ride as she riffs off the cuff, inviting them to join in the big numbers and ultimately has them on their feet for the show's epic mega-mix finale dance party. This performance sees world-class musicianship and a triumphant central performance from Naomi Price.

Support act, Matt and Jamie Hooper, from 7.00pm.

Ticket prices includes one course meal, served from 6.30pm.
