SEASON 2023

WELCOME

Third time lucky! After the various disruptions of the past three years, we are hopeful there are better times ahead and that our program will help lift your spirits.

As always, we aim to bring variety and quality to our stages. From the familiar such as Melbourne Symphony Orchestra, Australian Ballet and the Melbourne International Comedy Festival to new companies such as Transit Dance and Na Djinang, Australia's only professional, indigenous circus company. There is so much music to choose from; the Afternoon Delight series every month, concerts from Emma Donovan and The Putbacks, Amelia Ryan and Libby O'Donovan in I Am Woman, Lior as a soloist for the Melbourne Chamber Orchestra and Shepparton Theatre Arts Group with a cabaret theme of Christmas in July.

A Migrant's Son, starring Michaela Burger, will touch the heart strings of everyone, and is of course particularly relevant in a strong, migrant community like this. There is classic drama in the well-known Death of a Salesman and something new and unusual in The Dumtlectives in Cirque Noir (not called a killer comedy for nothing!).

This year, we introduce our Entertainment Package; buy three or more shows from the main program and enjoy discounts and other benefits throughout the year (more information on page 36).

We look forward to welcoming you in 2023.

Series

On a hot summer's day in 1965, Merle Thornton and Rosalie Bogner walked into the public bar of the Regatta Hotel in Brisbane, calmly chained themselves to the bar rail, and ordered a beer. What happened next would change the course of Australian history - and a little less obviously - the course of music in Australia for women, forever.

Join award-winning cabaret powerhouses Amelia Ryan and Libby O'Donovan, in a rollicking, raucous celebration of songs and stories from 1960s Australia.

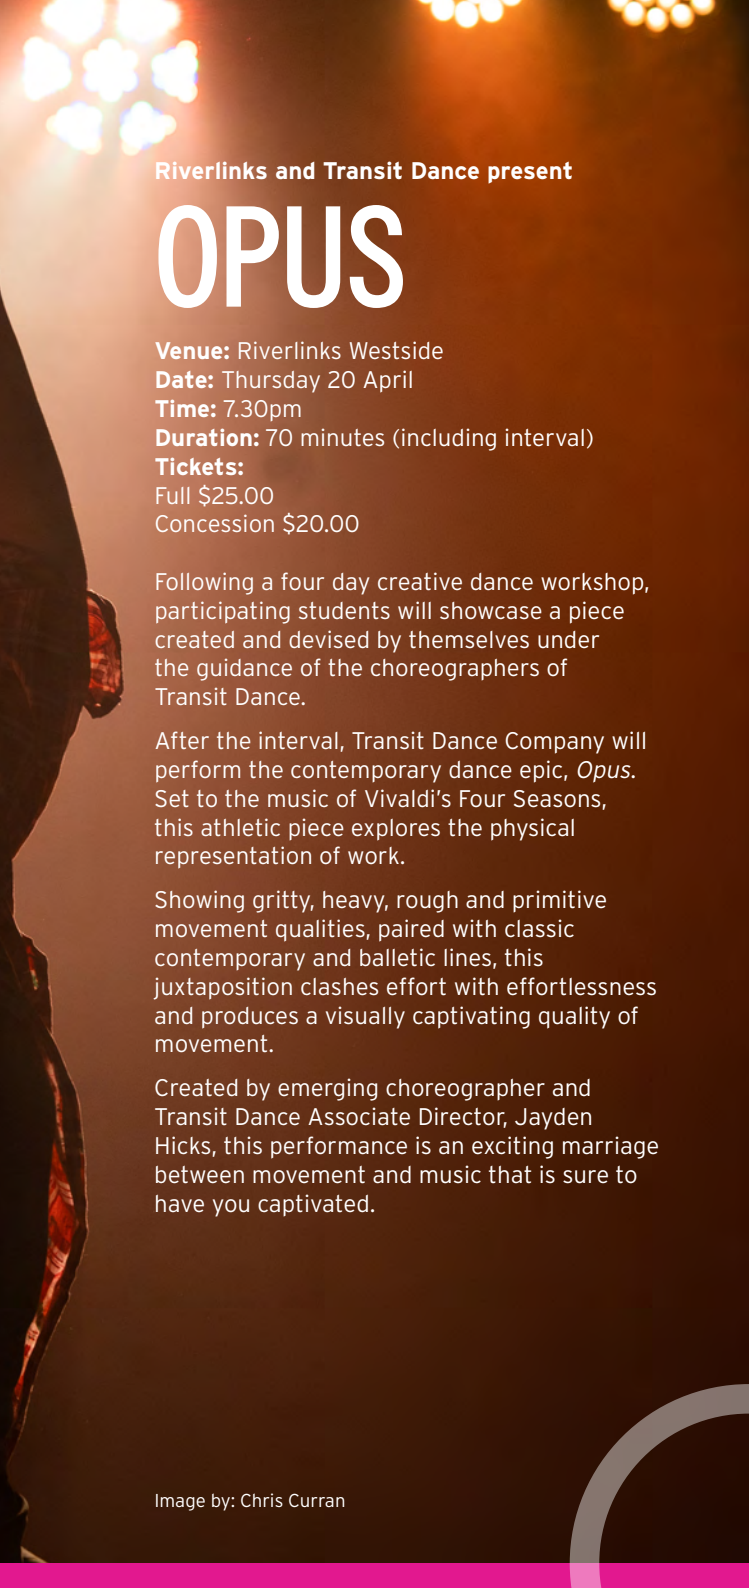

Hear the likes of Lynne Roadknight, Wendy Saddington and Alison McCallum, in an uplifting and nostalgic hour that pays homage to the women who blazed the trails for generations to come. Through history, heart and hilarity, they bring these incredible women - and their music - out of the sidelines and into their rightful place in Aussie music history!

Showing gritty, heavy, rough and primitive movement qualities, paired with classic contemporary and balletic lines, this juxtaposition clashes effort with effortlessness and produces a visually captivating quality of movement.

Created by emerging choreographer and Transit Dance Associate Director, Jayden Hicks, this performance is an exciting marriage between movement and music that is sure to have you captivated.

The collaboration was born of Emma and The Putbacks' shared love for classic American soul and the protest music of Indigenous Australia. Shades of every soul record you ever liked sneak through their music, as well as many Australian artists, giving them a unique standpoint.

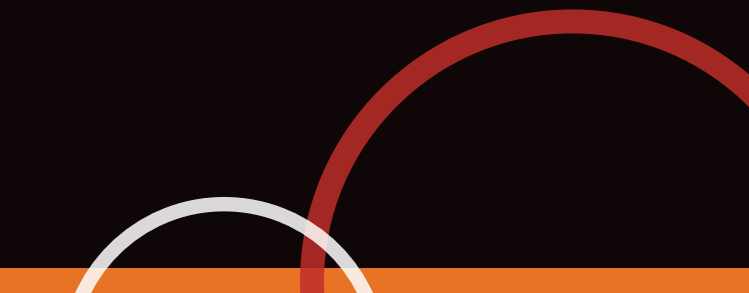

Emma's song writing is optimistic, impassioned and bruisingly honest. The Putbacks' music is fluid, live and raw. The collaboration has won friends and admirers all over the world.

This musical theatre experience will ignite memories of a story that millions of Australians can relate to. Michaela Burger pays tribute to her Greek migrant family and hard-working, fun loving larrikin father Luke, who defied all odds.

From early morning deliveries for the family bakery at age seven, down opal mines in Coober Pedy at age sixteen and opening a chain of discount supermarkets in Adelaide, Luke's road was not one for the faint hearted.

You'll traverse 100 years from Russia to the Australian outback, following the hardship, ingenuity, tragedy and triumph present in all migrants' stories. Watch Michaela tell her family story with poignancy, heart, outstanding singing and comical aplomb.

Program:

Deborah Cheetham AO - Long Time Living Here

Felix Mendelssohn - Overture 'The Hebrides'

W.A Mozart - Mozart Clarinet Concerto in A major

Felix Mendelssohn - Symphony no. 4 in A major
Op. 90 'Italian'

Experience an evening of sparkling Mendelssohn and powerful Mozart with the MSO and Cybec Assistant Conductor Carlo Antonioli.

Awestruck by the towering columns of rock and the rushing water at Fingal's Cave on a visit to Scotland's Hebrides islands, Mendelssohn wrote his evocative overture depicting the monumental beauty and forces of nature he encountered.

Ever the pioneer, Mozart wrote his Clarinet Concerto for basset clarinet - an instrument with a wider range than the existing clarinet enabling greater dramatic and musical variation. The only problem was that the instrument didn't yet exist, and was only finished just in time for the work's premiere! Hear this beloved concerto through new ears as MSO Principal Clarinet David Thomas performs on this rare and extraordinary instrument.

Walking on stone and cement it can be hard to remember what it feels like to have earth beneath our feet. What does it mean to be where we are?

By opening up the Acknowledgement of Country and taking a closer look within it, we search for a way to address the possible lack of connection contemporary Australians have with the spirituality of the land.

We follow the journey of three contemporary Australian circus artists with distinct relationships with Country; an indigenous Australian, a descendant of migrants and a descendant of colonial settlers.

Of The Land On Which We Meet hopes to rediscover a connection we once had on Country with 60,000 years of history, spirit and story.

For as long as there have been people, there has been song. Song is at the heart of rich musical traditions that bind people together, and attest to the spirit of time and place.

Eliding ideas of East and West, high and low, past and present, the music of renowned singer-songwriter Lior embodies a unique sensibility that feels urgent and relevant.

For the creation of a major new song cycle for the Melbourne Chamber Orchestra, Lior again pairs with regular collaborator Ade Vincent, an adventurous composer who works across classical, folk, electronic, pop and the space between them.
